

Bob Mooney

Bob has studied Wado Ryu karate with Norma Foster, Nanadan (7th degree black belt) since 2000, and continues to study periodically with Norma Foster, Peter Stoddart (6th degree black belt) and Richard Mosdell (6th degree black belt).

Bob is a member of the Canadian Zenkuren Wado Kai Association, the official Canadian representative of the Japan Karate Federation Wadokai (JKF Wadokai) and Karate Canada.

Bob is the owner of Guseikai Karate Vancouver and has been training children, youth and adults in Burnaby since 2011. He provides basic Wado Ryu karate and martial arts physical movement training as part of school outreach programs offered by Nikkei National Museum and Cultural Centre, and since 2012 teaches Wado Ryu Karate in a recreational format at Simon Fraser University (SFU) located at the Burnaby campus.

Bob also Studies Ryukyu Kobudo Shimbukan, Eishin Ryu Iaido and Takamura-Ha Shindo Yoshin Ryu Jiu Jitsu.

Contact:

Email: info@guseikaikarate.com

Tel: 778-877-3147 Follow Bob on twitter @wadobob

<https://twitter.com/wadobob>

Fuji Mooney

Fuji has studied Wado Ryu since 2000 and has achieved the rank of Nidan (2nd degree black belt). In addition to teaching and training at Guseikai Vancouver, Fuji studies Takamura-Ha Shindo Yoshin Ryu Jiu Jitsu assists at Nikkei National Museum and Cultural Centre.